Spartan Group: Footnotes to December Monthly Operating Reports March 29, 2024

- 1. Part 1e.: This reflects the net payments paid by or paid for another entity. A negative value indicates net payments have been made on behalf of another entity, whereas a positive balance reflects net payments have been made on the entity's behalf.
- 2. Part 2: Intercompany Receivables and Intercompany Payables have been removed which generates a different value for assets, liabilities, and equity from the balance sheet to more accurately reflect actual assets and liabilities
- 3. Part 4: Income Statement reflects the full month of December. Debtor's accounting system does not allow for partial month accounting.
- 4. Employees
 - a. All employees are employees of Spartan Group Holdings, LLC ("SGH").
 - b. Payroll is paid by SGH and the expense is allocated to each entity's P&L
 - c. Debtors Full-Time Employees will show "0" on all other entities despite there being a payroll and wage expense on the Income Statement
- 5. Comingling of funds
 - a. When funds are received by an entity other than SGH, they are remitted to SGH
 - b. SGH pays vendors for benefit of that specific entity
 - c. When funds are transferred to SGH, the remitting entity creates an intercompany receivable owed by SGH while SGH reflects the offset to the cash receipt as an intercompany payable
 - d. When SGH pays an invoice on behalf of another entity, it's financials show a reduction to cash, which is offset by a new intercompany receivable
 - i. By paying cash for benefit of such entity, it shows it is then owed that cash
 - ii. Ultimately, this is netted out by intercompany payables to that entity
- 6. Balance Sheet
 - a. Includes "intercompany Accounts Receivable" in assets and "Intercompany Accounts Payable" in liabilities
- 7. Income Statement
 - a. "Other Income" is included in Part 4a., which may create differences when compared to Income Statement provided as a Supporting Document
- 8. Construction Trust Funds
 - a. In certain instances beginning in January 2024, certain customers of Spartan Reinforcing, LLC ("SR") and Spartan Concrete Construction, LLC ("SCC") directly paid SR's and SCC's vendors, including via joint check agreements. SR and SCC reflected these payments in their books as reductions in accounts payable, but the books and these MORs do not otherwise treat direct payments as having been made by SR or SCC.
